NOTES
Recommend approval to award an annual contract for a night management program with Responsible Hospitality Institute, Inc. (RHI) in the amount of $80,000. The Special Events, Film, and Tourism Department are requesting the vendor to guide the City through a sociable city assessment process to develop a night management program. RHI provides a framework to coordinate a broad network of stakeholders to proactively plan for and address challenges associated with late-night social activity. RHI identifies strengths, challenges, and opportunities for improvement in nightlife and the social economy. The Social City Assessment provides an opportunity for a broad spectrum of residents, businesses and government officials to join in breaking down political, social, and economic barriers to a safe and vibrant city. The Social Economy is the collective revenue and employment generated by hospitality businesses and the suppliers of products and services to support sociability. RHI is a non-profit organization founded in 1983 as a global advocate promoting responsible beverage service training and policy. Today, RHI holds the position as the leading source of information on trends and strategies in nighttime economy management in North America. RHI's expertise has provided direct technical assistance to more than 80 U.S. and Canadian cities to facilitate collaborative solutions to the nightlife challenges. This effort is an identified strategy in the council approved Tourism Management Plan. The City of Savannah is piggybacking off a contract between the City of St. Augustine, Florida and RHI. The contract term expires on June 30, 2022. This contract also includes no available annual renewal options. Delivery: As needed. Terms: Net 30 days. The bidders were: P.B.
