NOTES
Recommend approval to procure apex officer virtual reality training simulator with TI Training in the amount of $83,830. The training simulator offers randomized training scenarios, for use of force and de-esclation. In addition, this purchase provides updated case law, de-briefing, and review at the conclusion of each exercise to identify areas of excellence, or weakness. This includes a haptic training vest to simulate physical contact during the training exercise. The use of force training will generate scenarios focusing on the Officer's primary firearms, rifles, shotguns, Tasers, OC spray, batons, and flashlights. This is a sole source because this technology is proprietary and being a patented product, due to the reconfigurable components in the screen design. Delivery: As needed. Terms: Net 30 days.
