Berkshire Study Recommendations (COMPLETED)

- Take steps to reinforce the importance of patrol
- Modify lieutenant assignments
- Reduce civilian staffing in the pawn shop unit
- Rotate call-out responsibility among all CID lieutenants
- Modify K-9 officer schedules
- Review resources assigned to mounted unit
- Improve traffic enforcement officer schedules
- Expand responsibilities of traffic Lieutenant
- Establish recruiting goals
- Encourage patrol officers to support Crime-Stoppers
- Select desired service levels and modify staffing
- Explore alternative approaches to providing services to other agencies (MOU's completed)
- Modify take home car policies
- Strengthen management and supervisory training and increase staffing by one position – every supervisor has completed (LPO) Leadership in Police Organizations conducted by IACP (Int'l Assoc of Chiefs of Police)
- Ensure officers do not refer residents to customer service instead of writing a report

Berkshire Study Recommendations (Pending)

- Develop plan to address short and long term tech investment needs
 - Develop approaches for ensuring consistency among patrol managers
 - Modify approach to collecting evidence at crime scenes
 - Develop “work around” to address accident reporting issues
 - Incorporate community outreach into crime reduction – continuing
 - Improve physical security for customer service staff
 - Develop case file management alternatives
- Officer Retention/Improved Deployment:
 - Improve shift rotation policies (delayed by other city bureaus)
 - Establish ways for officers to make productive use of time while waiting to testify in court (completed pending delays in shift rotation)

Marijuana Ordinance and Hands Free

Marijuana Ordinance

- Effective July 1st in the City of Savannah
- All officers have received training regarding the new ordinance
- From July 1 – July 14, there have been 19 people cited under the ordinance.

Hands-Free Law

- Effective July 1st in Georgia
- Officers are provided violators with pamphlets regarding the new law and rewarding drivers for complying (hands-free brackets and movie passes).
- Officers are providing warnings for the first 30 days for the first offense.
- From July 1 – July 14, officers issued 83 written warnings.

Technology

Mark Revenew, Chief of Police
Savannah Police Department

Drones

- Primary uses;
 - Crash and crime scene documentation
 - Search & rescue (missing children, elderly, etc.)
 - Tactical operations (barricaded gunmen, active shooter, etc..)
- Being used increasingly by public safety
- Research completed
- Proposed funding from condemned funds
- Currently working on procurement & community input

Mobile Office Work Platform

- Allows for quicker response:
 - Establishes quicker incident command
 - CID can obtain search/arrest warrants remotely
 - Remote communication with judicial officials
- Completed April 2018.

Enhancements

- Police IT Plan: Working with a vendor to develop a plan that will help drive technology based decisions
- Data Management: Problem continues to worsen
 - One recent homicide case generated over 40 interviews (excluding other digital evidence) that will require almost indefinite storage
 - #1 IT challenge currently facing SPD
 - Awaiting funding
- Records Management System
 - Existing RMS system is 11+ years old and lacks modern features and efficiencies
 - New system would include electronic ticketing and other features
 - Awaiting funding
