b. Alderman Johnson moved for the first reading only for Item #47. There was no second, therefore the motion was not carried. Alderman Thomas asked the City Manager to explain for the record, the changes to the Ordinance.

Susan Broker, Director of Special Events, Film, and Tourism, detailed the following changes to the Special Events Ordinance:

- Describes in more detail the definition of events and where they can occur
- Gives the Special Events, Film, and Tourism office the authority to deny an application that does not meet the requirements
- Gives staff the authority to shorten the timeline for smaller events

Ms. Broker outlined that smaller events do not need to apply for a permit, such as birthday parties, but if you need to use the City police, utilities or traffic monitors, you will need to submit a permit. Mayor Pro-Tem Bell asked Ms. Broker to outline the changes in Item #46, Tour Services For Hire.

- The Quadricycle boundaries were modified for Oglethorpe Avenue to be the southern boundary, allowing them to cross Bay Street into the warehouse district.
- Pedicabs were modified to extend to Drayton Drive.

Alderdwoman Dr. Shabazz asked Ms. Broker about the changes for Savannah State University parade on Saturday. Ms. Broker indicated the staging and routing of the parades were not changed and are not a part of the changes to the Ordinances.

Mr. Doug Andrews addressed the Veterans Day Parade as it relates to being included in special events. He said there should be a different Ordinance for the four annual parades; namely, St. Patricks Day Parade, Veterans Day Parade, Savannah State University Parade and Martin Luther King Day (MLK) Parade. Following discussions with the Mayor, Aldermen, City Attorney, Ms. Broker and Mr. Andrews, the consensus was to move ahead with the Special Events Ordinance as written.
